

Celebrating

International Women's Day

www.dublincity.ie/internationalwomensday

Central Library

Tuesday 6th March at 1pm

Ingenious Irishwomen: The lives and legacies of historic Irish women scientists. By Mary Mulvihill

Wednesday 7th March at 1pm

Dr. Dorothy Price: the scientific approach to tackling tuberculosis in Ireland, 1930-1960.
By Dr. Anne Mac Lellan

Dublin City Library & Archive

Saturday 10th March at 2.30pm

Today's Women in Science: A panel of women scientists discuss their work and experiences working in the science community in Ireland

Exhibition; Hilda Tweedy - A Link in the Chain

Hilda Tweedy and Dublin's feminist activists in the 20th Century

On display from 3rd - 17th March

Admission Free. Booking Essential.

For Further information and booking contact:

Central Library, Henry Street, Dublin 1
Tel. 873 4333, Email. centrallibrary@dublincity.ie

Dublin City Library & Archive, 138-144 Pease St.
E. dublinpubliclibraries@dublincity.ie. T. 6744806

